

Stitching from your Stash

Tired of adding new projects to your galaxy of UFO's? This July, ASG is hosting "Stitching from your Stash." Bring a project (or twenty) you haven't started because you don't know how to begin, or one you have already started that has you stymied. Teachers will be available to answer your questions and guide your needle through the vastness of your personal UFO galaxy.

We will have a special guest speaker, Jerry Trappey, who will be speaking on "How to Organize your Craftroom." She comes highly recommended and is sure to give us all some well needed tips.

The following teachers will be wandering around the room to answer stitching questions or provide assistance:
